CHUCKLES

An insurance agent stopped by a nearby church in hopes of selling some insurance. She greets the head usher at the door and asks to talk to whoever is in charge.

The usher says, "Not me; I only hand out the bulletins. Let me take you to the pastor."

The insurance agent then asks the pastor if he is in charge.

The pastor says, "Not me; I only preach and teach. Let me take you to the council president."

The insurance agent then asks the council president if she is in charge. "Not me; I only conduct meetings and hear complaints. Let me take you to the head of the trustees committee."

The insurance agent then asks the head of the trustees committee if he is in charge. The head of the trustees committee replies, "Not me; I just help take care of the building."

By this time the insurance agent is quite frustrated and wonders aloud, "well, who IS in charge around here anyway?"

The lady who serves the coffee pipes up and says, "That's me; NOTHING happens around here until I make the coffee!"
