THANK YOU to all for the outpouring of your time, monetary donations, coffee donations, and prayers to make the serving at The Banquet a huge success! 387 guests were served a full meal at Banquet East and meat was only paid for by our group for Banquet West, where 100 guests were served. We had 9 workers prepare the meal and 22 workers served and attended to the guests! This ministry is able to continue because we have so many wonderful individuals and groups that support it. God Bless you and mark your calendar for next year's date on June 7, 2023. Sincerely, Jane DeLay—Coordinator for the Moody County Ministerial Relief Fund

TECHNOLOGY UPDATE: Our tech. crew is doing their very best to get our services livestreamed each week! Unfortunately, we have been experiencing some difficulties with the streaming service to FaceBook & YouTube. Power outages, both unanticipated & scheduled, seem to cause the biggest issue. Most Sundays, after a lot of tinkering, they have been able to get the stream up on YouTube. As suggested in the past, please use the link in the blue rectangular box on our website, oslcflandreau.org. We try our best, but are human & technology has glitches! If you have specific suggestions to make it better or are willing to help learn and volunteer your time, please reach out to Becky B. or the church office! Thank you for your patience & grace!

FATHER'S DAY:

When I was...

- four years old: My daddy can do anything.
- five years old: My daddy knows a whole lot.
- six years old: My dad is smarter than your dad.
- eight years old: My dad doesn't know exactly everything.
- ten years old: In the olden days when my dad grew up, things sure were different.
- twelve years old: Oh, well, naturally, dad doesn't know anything about that. He is too old to remember his childhood.
- fourteen years old: Don't pay any attention to my dad. He is so old-fashioned.
- twenty-one years old: Him? My Lord, he's hopelessly out of date.
- twenty-five years old: Dad knows a little bit about it, but then he should because he has been around so long.
- thirty years old: Maybe we should ask dad what he thinks. After all, he's had a lot of experience.
- thirty-five years old: I'm not doing a single thing until I talk to dad.
- forty years old: I wonder how dad would have handled it. He was so wise and had a world of experience.
- fifty years old: I'd give anything if dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.

CHUCKLES:

A taxi passenger tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask him a question.

The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the sidewalk and stopped inches from a store window.

For a second, everything was quiet in the cab. Then, the driver said, "Look, mate, don't ever do that again. You scared the living daylights out of me!"

The passenger apologized and said, "I didn't realize that a little tap would scare you so much."

The driver replied, "Sorry, it's not really your fault. Today is my first day as a cab driver. I've been driving a funeral van for the last 25 years."
